

Topic 8: Systems and Applications

1 Guidelines

This topic will look at several existing systems/applications that have employed P2P technologies. You should look at (a) file systems; (b) backup systems; (c) information retrieval systems; (d) data management systems and (e) caching systems in the following sections. For each of these applications, you should look at representative systems in the literature.