An Evening of Crazy Horse Paris

Visual feast of dance, lights, music and precision choreography

The world-famous show is housed in a restored building at Clarke Quay, that has been transformed into an exotic world of luxury - wrapped in plush velvets and silks - promising an intimate theatrical experience. The new venue is the largest and most elaborate so far, bigger than the Crazy Horse theatres in Paris and Las Vegas. Enjoy a spectacle that combines artistry with sensuality - a truly unforgettable occasion.
